

Same orbit, two different times.

What are the relative masses (the mass ratio) of the two objects?

Start by putting an X at the location of the center of mass. Then use a ruler to solve the problem.

What is the speed of the Sun in its orbit around its center of mass with Jupiter?